

Lessons From WellDoc's Mobile Health App

(Posted on Forbes - Tech at Tue, Dec 20, 2011 at 03:19PM)

Being able to monitor health information anytime, anywhere on a mobile device, and get instant feedback, is a powerful thing. But only a handful of companies so far have conducted clinical trials to measure the effectiveness of their application. WellDoc is one of them. It has shown that its phone-b (visit source article)
